4. The tenderer is required to submit their offer in sealed and super scribed envelopes indicating the following:-

Envelope (Techno-Commercial cum Price Bid)

The tenderers are requested to furnish the documents as required in clause no. 21 in respect of the credentials and other details in this envelop.

The form of Price Bid duly filled in with the item rates both in words and figures in the same form as issued to tenderers should be submitted in this envelope.

(Refer please para 2 and 3 of NIT)

5. The bidders should quote in words as well as in figures the item rates quoted by them. In absence of which the Bids may not be considered and are likely to be rejected.

All corrections/cuttings should be signed by the tenderer. Each page of the tender should be signed by the tenderer. In the event of discrepancy between rate in figures and words the rate quoted in words shall be treated as correct. In case there is discrepancy between rate and amount worked out the rate quoted shall be taken as correct and not the amount.

6. EPI takes no responsibility for tenders lost/delayed in postal transit and therefore, tenderers should lodge their tenders sufficiently in advance.

7. EPI reserves the right to postpone the tender due date and issue required amendment, if any. There will be no public tender opening. However, selected tenderers may be called for discussions/clarifications after the tenders have been scrutinized.

8. Tenders must be duly signed with date and sealed.
9. The tenderer shall furnish the name(s) and designation of relative(s) if any, employed by EPI.

10. Tenders with following discrepancies are liable for rejections;

   a) Tenders with over-written or erased rates or rates and amounts not written in both figures and words.

   b) Tender that is incomplete, ambiguous, and not accompanied by the documents asked for.

   c) Tender received after specified date/time whether due to postal or other delays.

   d) Tender in respect of which canvassing in any form is resorted to by the tenderer.

   e) If the tenderer deliberately gives wrong information in his tender or resorts to unfair methods in creating circumstances for the acceptance of his tender, EPI reserves the right to reject such tender at any stage.

11. No deviation shall be allowed from the terms and conditions stipulated in the tender documents and tender containing deviations are liable to be rejected. Deviations, if insisted upon must be specified in a separate ‘Deviation Sheet’ and kept in 1st envelope along with techno-commercial bid, otherwise, the tenderer shall be deemed to have accepted all conditions specified in these tender documents. Normally no deviation is accepted. (Amended as clause no. 1 to Addendum to Instruction to tenderer)

12. EPI reserves the right to split the order.

13. The tender shall remain open for acceptance for a period of 2 (two) months from the due date for receiving the tender by EPI.

14. These instructions to tenderers shall form part of the tender documents.

15. Submission of a tender by the tenderer implies that he has read the complete contract documents and has made himself aware of the scope, terms & condition and specifications etc. No claim within the purview of this clause shall be entertained at any stage.

16. EPI reserves the right to reject any or all tenders without assigning any reasons thereof and does not bind itself to accept the lowest tender.

17. In case the tender cannot be submitted for any reasons the complete set of Tender Documents in full shall be returned promptly but not later than 15 days from the due date to the address mentioned above for submitting the tender failing which the defaulting tenderer may not be considered for issue of future enquiries by EPI. (Deleted as per clause no. 2 to Addendum to Instruction to tenderer)

18. The order shall be governed by the Indian Laws for the time being in force.
