Sub: Shifting of Domain name for Website & Mailing System

As per Govt. guidelines, domain name epi.gov.in is getting discontinued from 1st July 2016. Therefore, the primary address of all mail accounts and existing website with domain "epi.gov.in" have been now shifted to one of our alias domain name "engineeringprojects.com". However, the prefix name of the mail address & credentials shall remain same.

For example abc@epi.gov.in shall function as abc@engineeringprojects.com and website as http://engineeringprojects.com .

Changes, if any, in alias/ domain name shall be intimated in future. All RO-incharges & HODs are requested to communicate the same to all concerned/ stake holders.
